Scholarship for Study at École Biblique

The Board of the Canadian Friends of the École Biblique (CFÉB) has established a scholarship to encourage Canadians to study and to do research at the École biblique et archéologique française de Jérusalem.

Eligibility Guidelines:

- Applicants must be Canadian citizens or landed immigrants.

- Preference will be given to candidates according to the following order:
  1. applicants who want to study for a full year at the École Biblique and complete the diploma of “Élève titulaire,” or applicants who will be enrolled in the doctoral program at the École Biblique
  2. students who are enrolled in a graduate degree at their home institution but want to spend a period of time at the École Biblique
  3. scholars who want to spend a period of time at the École Biblique for research.

  The time of the year will also be taken into consideration; there is more likely to be accommodation available from May to September than during the school year for those with short-term stays.

- Applicants must apply independently to the École Biblique by writing to the Director Fr. Hervé Ponsot (ponsot@ebaf.edu) and must be accepted by the École Biblique into a program of study or to conduct research. Applicants must at the same time write to the Guest Master Fr. Christian Eeckhout (ch.eeckhout@gmail.com) to request information about space availability and accommodation.

- Applicants must demonstrate financial need. It is intended that this scholarship will supplement other sources of income. A scholarship will normally be awarded in the range of $2,000 to $7,000, depending on need. Special consideration will be given to women and to individuals who would not have other sources of support available to them. Members of religious communities, diocesan clergy and lay students are eligible.

- If no qualified candidates from Canada are available and if sufficient funds are available, the monies in a given year may go to a candidate from a third-world country who is recommended by the Academic Director of the École Biblique.

Application Procedure

Applications may be submitted in French or in English.

Candidates should submit

- a curriculum vitae. (Please include SIN number since this is needed for reporting to Revenue Canada)
- a detailed statement of the candidate's proposed program of study or research at the École Biblique

• two letters of reference from professors familiar with the candidate's current work
• a statement of financial need.

A committee of three members of the Board of CFEB will review all the applications, and make recommendations to the Board. The Board will forward its recommendations to the Director of the École Biblique who will make the award.

Monies will be paid directly to the École Biblique for payment of fees, tuition and board and room. CFEB does not give money directly to applicants.

Deadline for applications: January 31, 2011. Decisions will be made by March 1, 2011.
